ALKALINE ANTIOXIDANT MICRO CLUSTER

Drink water with no worries.

Uses of different pH of water

Drinking Water (8.5 - 9 - 9.5 pH)

- For the initial 7 to 15 days, drinking water should be drunk at 8.5 pH.
- 9 pH water is preferable for drinking after the initial days, and this must be consumed in 3-4 litres per day for better results.
- It is highly suitable for cooking. It gives fragrance to coffee and tea, eliminates the fishy smell in non-vegetarian food, and enhances the crispy texture of fried foods. Good for drinking after Hangovers.
- Transforms cocktails smoother.
- 9.5 pH drinking must be taken before sleeping at night and first thing in the morning.
- It fights acidity, improves hydration, boosts the immune system, leads to effective digestion, and neutralizes acids formed during workouts hence being hygienic for people who hit the gym regularly.

Strong Alkaline Water

- It is good for washing vegetables & fruits, removes pesticides and other harmful chemicals, and enhances the storage period of the veggies.
- CLOTHES, LINEN SPRAY: Mix 10.5pH with a few drops of essential oils in a spray bottle. Use as refreshing linen spray.

Strong Acidic Water

- It sanitizes kitchen essentials, disinfects toothbrushes, removes slime and stains on the floor, removes coffee and sauce stains, cleans the toilet effectively and easily, and helps in curing diseases like gonorrhoea, eczema, allergies, rashes, etc.

Beauty water (5 pH not suitable for drinking)

- It is effective in toning the skin, perfect for bathing use, and improves your hair growth.
- It is good for plantations.
- It is also pet wash-friendly water.
- Beauty water cleans your skin very well, is perfect for makeup removal, closes the pores on your face, eliminates skin odour, and this water can be used as a face wash instead of chemicals or lotions.

Neutral Water (7 pH)

- This type is for up to 4-5 years kids and it can be considered good medicinally.
- It is a very healthy water variant for kids.
